Fine New Golf Course Opened Where Good Traps Are Attested by Players' Scores—Luncheons and Tea Events of the Week

New London, Conn., Aug. 2.—The Griswold Golf Club opened its new nine hole course 3,000 yards in length last Saturday. It is a fine test of golf, being well trapped as the scores for the day indicate. J. D. Dusenberry of the New London Golf Club had the best gross score, a 92, while W. S. Reburn of Chevy Chase required one stroke more, a 93. The prize for the best net score was won by H. D. Miller of Manhattan, with the Rev. P. M. Kerridge of New London second.

Mrs. E. Paber won the ladies' net prize. The new nine hole course is much harder than the old one. The clubhouse in the tournament was Frederick Terry, Miss Gene Terry, A. D. Pinkham and Miss Wallbridge, H. Brown, M. W. Reburn, J. A. Philbrick, Jr., J. A. Philbrick, Sr., Mrs. J. A. Philbrick, Thomas Travis, Dr. E. B. Swift, J. R. Hughes, George P. Hughes, Isaac Bromberg, B. E. Mallory, Mrs. J. C. Sullivan, John Reis, E. H. Wells and C. E. Van Vleet.

Piquet colony received a most unpleasant shock this week when the existence of the Casino, the centre of all its social life, was threatened by fire. A lighted match thrown from an upper window on to an awning started a fire that threatened complete destruction and only the almost instantaneous use of the clubhouse fire equipment saved the Casino.

The largest luncheon party of the week was given by Mrs. Edward Wright, Jr. for twelve were held in the Casino dining room, the flower laden tables making a pretty setting for the twelve daintily gowned women.

One of the largest teas of the season was given at the Casino on Wednesday by Mrs. B. P. Larned. The Eleven United States had played a programme selected largely from the latest musical comedies.

At the annual meeting of the Pequot Casino Association held last Saturday the following members were elected to serve on the board of governors: James D. Lynch, William Schall, Jr., B. Larned, H. R. Bond, Jr., L. T. Stoddard, H. C. Chappell, E. C. Johnston, Robert Butt and C. C. Russell.

Under the direction of Mrs. McCoskey Butt and Miss Anne Bremer an entertainment is being arranged at the Casino for Friday next. Tableaux illustrating songs will be presented by members of the Pequot colony, and the playette adapted by Miss Bremer will be presented by Miss Ruth Burner, John Waller and Robert H. Hamilton.

The largest social event of the week at the Griswold was the bridge party given by Mrs. James L. Morgan of Brooklyn. Mrs. Morgan issued invitations to some sixty of her friends who are occupying cottages or staying at the Griswold, but only about half of the number played bridge. Those at the card tables were Mrs. Byron Nugent, Mrs. E. T. Nugent, Mrs. William Adams Sanborn, Miss Gay, Mrs. Charles A. Miller, Mrs. J. A. Philbrick, Mrs. Charles M. Philbrick, Mrs. Thomas O. ## NAUTICAL EVENTS LEAD IN NARRAGANSETT'S GAY WEEK

Mimic Sea Battles, Target Practice and Yachting Along Coast Centres of Interest.

National Polo Tournament and Annual Tennis Tournament Attracted Many Visitors.

Point Judith Country Club Planning Moving Picture "Show"—Some Recent Arrivals.

NARRAGANSETT, R. I., Aug. 2.—Nautical events in Narragansett Bay, where mimic sea battles have been in progress, target practice, yachting along the coast, the national polo tournament on the fields of Point Judith and the annual tennis tournament are among recent diversions at the Pier, which is now approaching the zenith of its summer season.

The waters of Narragansett Bay afford ample space for naval maneuvering and target practice, and recently the red flag hoisted on a government craft anchored off the Pier indicated that the guns from a nearby fort were about to boom.

Another event anticipated with interest here is the annual cruise of the New York Yacht Club. These white winged craft will pass Narragansett next week on their annual regatta off the New England coast.

The national polo tournament has attracted many visitors to Narragansett during the past week, with the senior championship matches and the series for the Army and Navy cups played before large assemblies of devotees of the sport on the number one and two fields of Point Judith.

Lord Wodehouse of England has entered the lists in the open championship matches and is playing on the Point Judith team with Devereux Milburn, who is a popular member of the polo club at the Pier. The cup for the open championship is offered by Joseph B. Thomas of New York and the final event will take place on the Point Judith field Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Blending of Providence, have joined Mr. and Mrs. Edward Douglas Pearce, Jr., of the Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phillips of New York, William J. Chittier of Philadelphia and William A. Larned, who is at the Pier for the Point Judith tennis tournament, are registered at the Mathewson. Children's dances, afternoon tea and a series of bridge parties are planned for August at the Mathewson.

Among the poloists at the Imperial are Henry W. Harrison of Philadelphia, W. Russell Grace of the Great Neck Polo team, Benjamin K. Gattis of New York and Lewis J. Hunt of the Meadow Brook team.

GREENWICH SOCIETY BUSY PLAYING TENNIS

Second Handicap Tournament Arouses Much Interest—Apawamis Matches.

Fourth Dinner Dance at the Indian Harbor Yacht Club—Sound Beach Activities.

GREENWICH, Conn., Aug. 2.—The women's doubles today opened the second handicap tennis tournament on the courts of the Field Club. A large list has entered for the men's singles and doubles in this tournament and it promises to be one of the most closely contested thus far, as many fine players are on the list.

The first of the handicap tennis tournaments on the courts of the Field Club was finished in the early week, when H. S. Marston defeated Arthur Du Bos in the finals. In the women's singles Mrs. Gustav Schwab defeated Mrs. J. B. Slayback.

In the mixed doubles finals Mrs. George L. Storer and Mrs. H. S. Marston defeated Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams. In the men's doubles Alfred L. Ferguson and Harold Drummond defeated Colby M. Chester and J. R. Coffin.

The fourth of the series of dinner dances at the Indian Harbor Yacht Club was given on Saturday night, when 140 guests were present. Among those were Commodore and Mrs. William H. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Truesdale and Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Doremus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gardiner Cooper and their family, who have been on a cruise to Bar Harbor for the past month, on board their yacht, Maniche, have returned in the early week and will be at their country place, Norcott, where they will be for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leland, Jr., returned Tuesday from a cruise aboard their yacht, Indymoon, on which they have been absent for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Forbes, whose country place, the Chimneys, is in Old Church road, left Monday for Europe, where they will be for a visit of six weeks.

Mrs. Edward B. Close of The Boulders

In Rockledge residential section left New York Tuesday with her father, Mr. C. W. Post, for a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Post, in Colorado Springs and will be absent for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Louis Seward of 329 West Seventy-seventh street, New York, and who are occupying Boume Breeze in Belle Haven for the season, left Friday with their son, Hugh Seward, for New London, where they will pass the month of August, returning here after Labor Day, and will remain until November, when they will return to their house in town for the winter.

Mrs. Leslie C. Bruce and her son and daughter, Leslie C. and Harriet Bruce, of Bruce Place, with the Misses Helen and Janet Warford, who have been on an automobile tour of New Hampshire and Maine for the last four weeks, started from Portland, Me., yesterday, and will reach their home here in the early week.

Sound Beach, Conn., Aug. 2.—The young people at the Greenwich Inn have formed a society calling themselves the "I Should Worry Club" and they devote the greater part of their waking hours to sailing, bathing, motoring, dancing, tennis and riding. Arthur Stiles is the president, H. C. Avery secretary and N. J. Bailey treasurer.

Commencing this week on the courts of the Inn a lively open tennis tournament is now in progress with twenty-five entries.

Late arrivals at the Greenwich Inn include Mr. and Mrs. John W. Macarty, Misses Janette and Katherine Macarty, W. H. Jennings, C. C. Corley, Willis H. Stafford, C. G. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gould, Miss Osgood and Mrs. Jeffrey Goodfield, all from New York.

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I., Aug. 2.—Block Island social circles were entertained at the Spring House on Tuesday evening by a concert and dance given by the visitors of that locality for the benefit of the baseball team recruited from the ranks of bellhops. The programme consisted of acts, songs, dances and instrumental selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel W. Pierce, Jr., of Perth Amboy, N. J., and their three children are visiting Mr. Pierce's parents at their cottage, Villa Sutherland.

Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National Baseball League, and Mrs. Lynch are spending a few weeks on the island at the Ocean View Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch are enjoying their summer on Block Island.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald, the wife of Mayor Fitzgerald, and the Misses Rose and Agnes Fitzgerald are stopping at the Ocean View. Tomlinson Asai, the well known Japanese fencer, has been spending a number of days at the Ocean View. On Monday evening he appeared before an assembled audience at that hotel and gave a concert which created a furor. His selections in both English and his native tongue were sung in the most artistic style, showing his soft, high voice to its most pleasing advantage.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin and little daughter of New York, who were stopping at the Surf Hotel the first of July, have returned for another stay.
